Our hearts go out to Uncle Marv and our cousins and their families. So many great times were shared as kids growing up and over the years - we will always cherish those memories. How wonderful that Nov. 11 will be not only a celebration of Mary's 80th birthday but of her welcoming into heaven.

“ Everytime I meet Aunt Mary, she always smiles and says "Hi Rita!". She was fun to chat with. It was always great to see her with Marvin and the cousins at family gatherings and at church. Happy Birthday Mary, and may you celebrate with relatives, friends, and angels full of smiles and with a bunch of candles around up there in Heaven!

“ *Dear Marv and family,
I just noticed the death of your dear wife, Mary. Know I will keep you and your family in my prayers. I will let the other Benedictine Sisters who worked in Blufton know of her death.
I have many fond memories of my "first" babysitting jobs with your family.
Blessings and may you be at peace,

“ As I reminice about my sweet sister-in-law, I think back to all those times when our family was invited for Thanksgiving dinner. All that delicious food and a game or two of cards. Oh, how hard Mary worked to not only prepare for the feast, work in the store and still have to care for her large family. This was such bad news for Tim. Sally, Vicki and Scott, as they loved their Aunt very much. She was special to all of our family.
Now she, Jerry , Dolores and Vera can all feast and play Schmeear together.
