“ We extend our heartfelt sympathy to Nan's family and friends. The only true comfort is knowing Nan has now seen the face of Christ and is eternally in His presence. Those left behind suffer in sorrow but let it bring comfort that Nan no longer suffers in illness. She rejoices in the presence of her Lord and with the loved ones who have gone before her. We lift you all up in prayer hoping the memories of sweet Nan will bring some comfort.

“ Our deepest sympathy to all of you in the passing of Nanna. Our memories forever will be good ones and her laughter will long ring in our hearts! She brightened up the room and made the kitchen lively at Bluewater in her cooking days there. May the Lord be your comfort during this time and in the days ahead as you miss her. Blessings!

“ I have an early memory of Aunt Nan handing me a pea pod straight out of her big garden; I had never tasted any vegetable so good. Up until that time I had eaten only peas from a can. I remember her good cooking, the beauty of her home, and her wonderful laugh.

“ I always enjoyed heading to Uncle Swen and Aunt Nan's house when we visited up north. Nan was a wonderful hostess and a warm and spunky person. I know she will be deeply missed.

“ I have so many fond memories of my Aunt Nanna...most of them from my childhood playing with my wonderful cousins. But the best memory of all is Nanna's laugh and her "re-telling" of the little things we said as children. My sister, Sandy, and I loved to visit and had such a wonderful time and lots of stories to remember throughout our adult life. We will miss you, Nanna, you were the best Aunt. My love to all the family.
