

Orville Damann

May 11, 1937 - April 5, 2017

The funeral service for Orville Damann of the Sebeka and Verndale area will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Tuesday, April 11, at the Grace Lutheran Church in Sebeka with Pastor Mark Hesse presiding. Visitation will be held at the church on Tuesday one hour prior to the service. Orville, age 79, passed away on Wednesday, April 5, 2017 at the Conerstone Long-term Care Facility in Bagley, MN.

Orville was born to Charles Andrew and Stella Ione (Langworthy) Damann on May 11, 1937 in Farmington Village, Dakota County, MN. He was raised in Shevlin, MN and moved to the Eagan area in the 1960's. On July 7, 1972, Orville and Violet Octoria Olson were united in marriage in Watertown, SD. They moved north shortly after their marriage and resided in Wadena and Park Rapids before moving to Verndale. In earlier years Orville owned his own sand and gravel truck then secured a job driving truck for Wadena Sawmill and worked until retirement. Orville and Vi moved to Sebeka in 2003. Vi passed away June 27, 2007. Orville remained in Sebeka until failing health precipitated a move in October 2016 to be near family in Bagley. He loved to fish and take afternoon drives through the countryside.

Orville was preceded in death by his wife Violet; parents Charles and Stella; and brother Karl Damann.

He will be fondly remembered by his brothers Donald (Bernadine) Damann of Grasston, Andrew (Sandy Dwight) Damann of Shevlin, and Arthur (Jan) Damann of Bagley; along with several nieces and nephews.

Pallbearers will be Chuck Damann, Eric Damann, Liz Damann, Andrew Damann Jr., Darryl Kukowski, and Ken Damann.

Burial will be in Green Lawn Cemetery, Verndale, MN.

Memorials are preferred.
