“ I remember Paul as always having a nice smile on his face and always friendly and always nice words to say. He never complained. He was just a nice person to know.

“ So sorry to hear about your dad Tammy. Just remember he is in a better place now! Wanted to make it to the visitation but didn't know the time until late and it just didn't work. Take Care...Hope everything goes ok.

“ Grandpa,
You will be greatly missed! You were a very good man, so patient and kind. I will always remember the summer vacations I spent up north with you and Grandma going to flea markets or just hanging out in the garden picking carrots, peapods and strawberries. I also remember you and I pretending to be different characters, "Mike and Mula" what a pair we were! You will now join our son, Daniel in the heavens above. I am so glad he will finally have the opportunity to meet and know you! I am jealous of the time you will spend together. Know that you will ALWAYS be in our hearts, Grandpa!
We ALL love and miss you...
