“ I have such fond memories of greeting Ray at church in Bluffton; taking that big, firm hand in mine. My Great Aunt Myrtle (Hugo) Ament always considered Ray a friend and after she died I just felt the need to stay in touch with him. My sympathies to all of you on the passing of such a dear man.

“ I always enjoyed visiting with Ray in the lunch room at the Elders home when we visited my Mom and Dad there.

May the peace of our savior Jesus Christ be with you all at this time.
