“ We just visited this last year. He farmed near my sister, and we often saw him doing what he loved to do...be his own boss and work his land. Although he was quiet, he had a funny sense of humor, and enjoyed being teased and kidding back in return. All of his classmates will remember him on our football team, and as a pleasant and gentle adult when we would visit at our reunions. We classmates would always personally call him if we didn't hear back from him so that he knew we wanted to see him and visit with him at our reunions...and he would come. One year he said, well, I'll come if Jerry will come. Of course we said Jerry was coming, then called Jerry to tell him...and they both ended up coming & had a nice, long visit! He had a quiet dignity that I admired, God Bless, Robin Kvamme Thompson
