“ I used to play poker with Roland at the Horseshoe. He was always nice and respectful. I enjoyed talking to him about business and real estate. I always thought it was hilarious that he could put thousands of dollars on the table, but still had a flip phone in like 2010. RIP Roland.

“ Aunt Pauline and cousins Ray, Robert and Richard, so sorry to hear about cousin Roland. Remember his nickname "Kootsey"? He loved drinking milk, playing cards, fishing and loved the Minnesota Twins. He had fun at grandma's at Christmas with the family. I remember him singing French songs with Grandpa playing his accordion. He experienced a lot of life living in other states, but it was good that he finally came back home to Minnesota. Everyone was hoping to spend time with him at his new business. He will be missed. I am sure grandma welcomed him to Heaven where he is now sitting at the dining room table chatting with grandpa, family, and Sandy and Bernie, while grandma cooks dinner. Rest in peace dear cousin. Love, Carol (Flowers sent separately from the family)
