“ Shirley was one of the kindest and most caring person. She always met you with her warm and friendly smile. We did Bible Study with her and Byron years ago and her faith was so impressive. God's Blessings to the family.

“ Shirley’s enthusiasm for her work at church encouraged many to join the Immanuel women to join in to make the group very active in many activities at her church. She was enthusiastic and encouraged many women who would have remained on the “fringes to become welcome and very helpful. And productive members. She will be missed.

“ For several years I would see Shirley at Oma's on Tuesday mornings. When I would visit my sister, Jeanne, at Fair Oaks, I would often have the opportunity to visit with Shirley. I was a fan of her gracious smile and her calm demeanor. Shirley, rest in peace.
