

Stacy Hundebly

October 13, 2000 - April 16, 2016

A Celebration of Life for Stacy Hundebly, age 15 of Wadena, will be held at 2:00 PM on Tuesday, April 26, 2016 at the Wadena Alliance Church with Pastor Aaron Andrews presiding. Visitation will be held Monday at the church from 6:00 until 8:00 PM and will resume on Tuesday from 12:30 until the time of services. Stacy, at the age of 15, and her beloved K-9 companion, Bronson, died tragically on Saturday, April 16, 2016, from injuries sustained in a train / pedestrian incident in Wadena, MN.

Stacy was born to Teodora Stacheva Mateva on October 13, 2000 in Minneapolis, MN. Teodora was united in marriage with Joseph Hundebly on August 23, 2008, at the Royalton Park, Royalton, MN, by Honorable Judge Hoolihan of Benton County, MN. They made their home in St. Cloud before moving to Wadena in Stacy's 7th grade year. She has been attending Wadena-Deer Creek School where she enjoyed art and reading, and participated in FFA.

Stacy proved to have an artist's heart and temperament from an early age. She was a deep thinker with a desire to understand the world around her. She analyzed and created things that interested her. She found value in creating, rather than going to a store or to the internet to purchase items. Her school assignments were often adorned with doodles and thoughts. Stacy gravitated toward animals, starting with wolves, dogs, and cats, then eventually developed a passion for horses. She and Joe searched extensively for the right dog before Bronson, a beautiful black lab, entered their lives. She enjoyed the times spent playing and walking with him. Stacy valued her friends. She had a desire to help them with their problems without wanting them to be concerned with hers. She made friends easily and would walk into a situation, start asking questions, and before you knew it, gained a new friend in the process. She has been described by many as a girl with a big heart. She was very kind, well liked, fun to be around, along with being very compassionate.

Stacy had a variety of interests including: cooking, sewing, puzzles, her friends, making forts in the hay mound, riding horses, her cats Rosy and Kitty, antiques and garage saling.

Stacy will be greatly missed by her family and those who were given the gift of being able to call her friend.

Stacy is survived by her mother Teodora Mateva and father Joseph Hundebly of Wadena; brothers, Calvin Reed Hundebly and Niles Joseph Hundebly of St. Cloud; grandparents, Srebrina Mateva and Stancho Matev of Kazanlak, Bulgaria, and Eugene Hundebly of Zumbrota, MN; uncles Nikolay Matev of Kazanlak, Bulgaria and Frank (Toni) Burgin of Minneapolis; aunts Jeannine Hundebly of Minneapolis, MN, and Colleen (Jeff) Bentson of Florida; along with many cousins and friends.

Stacy was preceded in death by her grandmother Patricia Mary Hundebly on January 10, 2015.

What a lovely tribute. Those of us who did not have the pleasure of meeting Stacy in person can feel what a beautiful and loving soul she was through your precious family pictures. Our love to your family.

James 4:14 reminds us we are just a vapor in the wind. As I get older I often wonder what kind of legacy I will leave behind. The loss of Stacy has weighed heavy on my heart. From what had been shared she has touched many lives and was a blessing to those who knew her. I never met her and I feel as though I do now. My prayers are with the family and friends that have lost such an amazing treasure.

“ Dear family,
My heart breaks for you all and the journey you now face. We lost our son at 16 and know the winding path you will travel. Hold tight to each other and to faith. Hold tight. May God comfort your broken hearts and reassure you that you are not alone. Be gentle with each other and on yourselves. Your precious girl knew love and loved you. Hold tight.

Megan Yoder - April 20, 2016 at 11:58 PM

“ I wrote a few lines for the parents. These are my words, not a quote, and I hope that they provide some measure of comfort, however small that it may be. I've done my best to share awareness of this tragedy. I have a little girl too, and a boy on the way any day now. I can't imagine losing either of them.

There will never be in this world a time when you are as permitted, either by the allowance of others directly, or simply by the implied nature of circumstance, to bereave as wholly as you ought from the loss of a child. There is not, nor can there be, any level of determined time or energy exhausted in this endeavor, for the truth is that you will grieve forever. In this, I am as sad as words allow for expression, for I would myself surely break under the burden that you now bear.

I am truly sorry for your loss.

“ Stacy, you sweet, sweet girl! I'm thinking about all the wonderful hugs we shared when you came to visit us and now Jesus gets to share that same joy! All the flowers you and Claudia would pick from the garden, your long walks and talks, hours spent playing with your toy horses together, and the many hours of drawing pictures and sharing them with each other. Your infectious smile and laugh will stay in our memories forever! You were a ray of sunshine to us all. May God's peace live in all of you and rest in the assurance that we will see Stacy again when we enter the gates of Heaven. We miss you sweet girl and will always love you.
