“ We will certainly miss seeing him in the park and outside Super One. He knew so much about music and was kind to everyone. Yes he loved to talk, but he was fun to listen to and was quite a historian. Some people are never appreciated until they are no longer with us. I hope all of us will speak well of Steve and remember the guy on the bike with the big smile for all of us. Rest easy in the arms of the Lord Steve.

“ I remember seeing Steve Moe at the bench by the Wadena Library and he wanted to talk. Such a nice friendly good looking guy.

“ Steve was such a thoughtful person. I remember him spending lots of time with his mom at Shady Lane (now Fair Oaks Lodge). He loved his family so much. He always had a "hello and how are you doing?" to me when I saw him downtown. It will be so hard not seeing him around Wadena. He was a Precious Man who had a Big Caring Heart ❤️ our prayers go out to the family at this time of Great loss

“ The Roes family has fond memories of Steven, having shared childhoods growing up on the same block. Always friendly on his rides through the neighborhood and around town, no one had a more "tricked out " bike than Steven. Having friends now living in Wadena, I understand Steven retained that friendly nature all through life. Bravo, Steven!

Gordon, I was so sorry to hear of Steven's passing. We could always hear Steven coming down the street on his bike. He would announce his favorite "Hi-di-ho silver away" and we knew he was ready to play. We had a great neighborhood to grow up in and fond memories when all the kids would get together.
