“ I am so sorry for the loss of Stewart- he was a real firecracker! I did not know him very well these last few years, but I played on a co-ed volleyball league with he and Wendy last winter. What a nut! I know that you are all hurting and I will continue to pray for each of you... Wendy & kids, Iris and the Denny family, as well as the many family and friends that were blessed by Stewarts presence in their life. We were the lucky ones..."We can do all things through Christ who gives us strength"...

“ When you view the pictures of Stewart as a child, you are reminded that he is someone's little boy. When you view the pictures of Sterwart as a father, you are reminded that he is a Daddy. When you view the pictures of Stewart with Wendy, you are reminded that he is a husband. When you look at all the pictures it is easy to see that he had everything; a loving family - A touching tribute.

I am truely sorry for your loss. Stewart will be missed.

My thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ Aunt Iris,
I was stunned to hear of Stewart's passing. No parent should have to bury a child, but the Good Lord has need of Stewart now so he has called his angel home. We are only allowed to have them for a while. I know that he will be greatly missed. Time has passed and I will remember the fun loving young boy he was and know that, in my heart, the man was that way too.

*Wendy and Kids,
I don't know you well, but always treasure the memories you have of Stewart as a husband and father. He may be gone from this Earth but he will continue to live on in your hearts and memories.*

My families thoughts and prayers are with you in this time of grief and sadness.

“ Though time and life kept us from knowing each other well as adults, it is the child I remember. I remember Stewart being born and seeing him grow to be a sweet and fun young man. I have never met his family but know in my heart that he loved you all.

Aunt Iris I can only say that you are in my prayers. You are a true matriarch and I'm sure you will guide your family through this loss. Wendy, may the strength of family and friends aid you and God be with you.

Our sympathy goes out to you.

“ Stewart was a wonderful person, and was always so cheerful and happy. There are only good things to say of him. He was like a class clown all through school, truly a joy to be around, and never a dull moment. I am truly sorry for his loss, and my many thoughts and prayers go out to his family. May God hold you and carry you through this time. Stewart will always be remembered.

Sincerely,

“ Wendy - I can not begin to know what you are going through - especially now around the holidays. It does not seem fair that someone so young and full of life was taken from you and this earth. I think about you and Stewart everyday and every time I hear the Kenny Chesney song - Who'd you be today.

My thoughts and prayers are still with you and always will be -

“ I met and worked with Stewart's mom Iris at the Shady Lane Nursing Home in 1986 & 87. Iris absolutely loved her family and spoke about them often. I was just a bit older than Stewart so we talked often about the goings on at that time. Over the years, Iris and I still talk about her family when we meet. I later went to work for Johannes State Farm in Wadena, where I came to know Wendy and Stewart and of course with all the license tabs I need to always buy, I get to see Wendy plenty over at the license bureau. So shocked and sorry to hear of Stewart's passing. Iris, Wendy and the rest of the family, may God comfort and keep you at this most difficult time. May you keep the hope of a glad reunion day when you all meet again. My thoughts and prayers to all of you.

“ When I think of Stewart I remember something my Grandpa Ben would say, "Them's Good People". Stewart was "Good People". He was a loving husband and father, he knew how to have fun, and he always treated people with honor and respect. Stewart made Jack laugh more than any other person I know. I remember the bus trip we took to Mahnomen years ago - Stewart and his brothers had Jack giggling so hard I thought he was going to have an accident. Some of the week-ends we were lucky enough to spend with Stewart and Wendy will be treasured for years to come. Stewart had a sparkle in his eye, you could never tell if it was mischief, love, or just plain happiness. I consider myself honored to have been his friend. Even though I don't know Aaron and Ashley well, I see that same sparkle in their eyes that was inherited from their dad. They too will be "good people". Wendy - no words can express the sadness you must feel. I cannot tell you how sorry I am that this happened. Please know that Stewart will never leave you, he will be by your side forever. We love you and will do anything we can to help you through this difficult time.

“ Wendy and family - I was so saddened by the news of Stewart. It seems like someone so young should have a long time to live yet. I can not even think about what you and the kids are going through. Know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. I can remember Stewart always having a smile on his face in school. Always goofing off and making people smile and laugh. Knowing someone since you were in kindergarden - makes it really hard to understand. I know you are never suppose to question why God does something - but he is suppose to have his reasons. Wendy, children, and families - I will pray for you everyday for your comfort to make it through all of the hard times coming. You will need strength - you are a strong person and you have lots of friends and family to help you out.

“ Wendy: I cannot imagine what you and your children are going through. Please know that you have been in my thoughts and prayers constantly since I heard. Whenever I think of Stewart I think of sitting in Sunday School, church, confirmation class with him and goofing off with him and Aaron Wierimaa too. It was so hard to pay attention! He was such a goof off! He was such a nice guy too. It is so hard to imagine that someone you have known pretty much your entire life is gone. I guess it hits home. Please know that you have my very deepest sympathy. Shannon

“ There are too numerous the memories to choose just one of the fun and memorable times we have shared with Stewart and Wendy. Stewart was Kelly's childhood friend and classmate (1990)....

Wendy was my first friend and classmate

(1993) as well. Words cannot express the trueness of our sadness!

There are no words to explain how to feel--empty, I guess. I will miss hearing Stewart call Wendy "Hazel".... it's just something I will always think was special.

You were a true and giving friend, Stewart! Always had time for your friends and could always enjoy the simple things in life....for that you were blessed! Aaron and Ashley are very lucky to have you as their Dad, and Wendy to have someone to always make her laugh, as well as the rest of us! You will truly be missed....but carried in the hearts of those who knew and loved you through your life's legacy. Thank you for standing up for Kelly & I in our wedding AND our reception...you shared your special day with us; seeing it was on your birthday!

We love you Stewart...may God take you graciously by the hand to watch over us...and to keep us strong!

"We'll miss YOU just as much as you will miss us!"--for that I am certain!

No one can ever take away our memories...

Peace be with you!!!!

Our love~ Kelly & Laura

“ I was very saddened and shocked when I heard about Stewart. He was a very wonderful, caring and funny man. He will be greatly missed. Wendy, Ashley, Aaron and family you will be in our prayers and thoughts through your time of loss. Remember Wendy, Stewart will always be with you heart and soul. God Bless, and always remember that you will again someday be reunited with him. My daughter was telling me about a lot of memories and fun times that she had had with the family and Stewart and all the crazy funny things he use to do. There was never a dull moment when Stewart was around, cause he always brightened a room or someones day and life. He will truly be missed. You all are in our prayers, and god bless you all.

“ Words cannot express my sorrow for you today and as well for days to come. Stewart was fun and friendly to everyone he met. I know that times will seem low but just know he there in your heart and in your children. Stewart had the gift of making people laugh and smile and truely that is a gift hard to find. Just know that your friends are here for whatever you need and I pray for all of you today and everyday.

“ After hearing all the stories from Kathy Pickar, I was nervous to meet Stew at the Denny Halloween party three years back. (Honey, this is Stewart) he, put his arm around me, and stuck a beverage in my hand. We each exchanged a joke. Then he exclaimed to the whole room, " I LIKE THIS GUY! " and picked me up and carried me around the garage to meet his other friends. As soon as we'd get through an introduction, he'd pick me up and move to the next. (you could hear Kathy Laughing the whole time) Over the next couple years this was reduced to razor stubble on my cheek and his tongue in my ear. I have pictures to prove it....

I admire Stewart for making life fun, having such great friends, and family.

“ Wendy, you have been heavy on my heart ever since I heard the tragic news. I am truly so sorry. I remember one morning before school in the bathroom by Ms. Sheldon's classroom, you told me that "Stewart had asked you to marry him last night!" I was so happy for you!! That memory of joy is so clear in my mind. Stewart was always such a fun-loving guy, and although I didn't see you much after the wedding, I'm sure you made an awesome couple. You and the kids are in my prayers and will continue to be.
