

Sylvia Roggenkamp

April 3, 1928 - August 13, 2005

Sylvia Magdalene Geiser was born to her parents William, Sr. & Katherine (Kupfer) Geiser on April 3, 1928 in Bluffton. She passed away on Saturday Aug. 13th at the Greater Staples Hospital. Sylvia spent her entire life in and around the Bluffton area. She was united in marriage to Alphonse B. Roggenkamp on April 9, 1947 in Bluffton. Sylvia and Alphonse moved into Bluffton in 1981 after retirement. She enjoyed sewing, quilting, cooking and gardening. Her quilts were gifts for many relatives and friends, and her flower gardens were beautiful. She also enjoyed many special times with her children, grandchildren & great-grandchildren. Sylvia was preceded in death by her parents; sisters Dee Dee Shearer, Gert Dykhoff & Laura Johnson; brothers Leo, Rich & Buck Geiser. She is survived by her husband Alphonse; son Jim (Lynda) of New York Mills; daughters Jeanne of Bluffton, Joyce (Bruce) Boyne of Wadena, Judy (Bob) Shaw of Henning, Jan (Don) Hill of Woodbury & Jill (John Carlson) Looch of Henning; 13 grandchildren & 4 great-grandchildren; sister Katherine (Girlie) Breuer of New York Mills. Burial will take place in the St. John the Baptist Catholic Cemetery following the services.

Tribute Wall

DM

“ I just wanted to send condolences to the family on Sylvia's passing, as I saw it in the Wadena paper online.

When I was little I used to ride my bike over to Phonse and Sylvia's to visit with them. Their door was always open and they always welcomed a visit. That's one memory that I will always have of Sylvia, is stopping over and having something cold to drink on a hot day and chatting the afternoon away.

Dorothy & George McAllister - August 13, 2005 at 12:00 AM