“ *Bob, Jimmy, Jessie, and Nicki;
As I sit here and think about all of you, wondering what to say or not to say. No words will ever take the pain or hurt away that you are feeling. You have to know that even though it was sad to see Tammy go, she is not suffering anymore and you will see her again. Please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers through all of this and you have been for the last 4 or 5 years, while Tammy, along with all of you, have been going through this battle. Let the memories and family carry you through this.*

I can do all things through Christ which strengthens me. Philippians 4:13

God please be with Bob and family;

“ When I heard Tammy passed away two things entered my mind: She's whole again and no more pain, but best of all she's "home for Christmas."

Take the time to grieve and then honor Tammy by living the life she would want each of you to have. God promises that if we know and believe in Him we will all be together again some day. It doesn't get any better than that!

“ Tammy will be greatly missed! Lori and I went to Wadena AVTI with Tammy. She was a hoot and always smiling and laughing. She never stopped! She was a great mom (hockey mom too) and loved her family and her community very much. All of our thoughts and prayers are with her family. Take care.

“ *Bob, Jim, Jessie, and Nicki,
We want you to know how much we will miss Tammy. She was just like a sister to us. She had so many wonderful attributes. She was a wonderful mother; she was so proud of all of the accomplishments you kids have achieved. She never spoke a bad word about others. She was a "classy" lady. She loved her flower gardens and enjoyed decorating her home. I know the last four years have been a huge struggle, but Tammy taught us a lot about life and living. We admire your love and perseverance through out this journey. Hold on to all the wonderful memories of Tammy, they will give you strength in the days ahead. Always have faith. Psalm 71:20-21 says it eloquently; "Though you have made me see troubles, many and bitter; you will restore my life again; from the depths of the earth you will again bring me up. You will increase my honor and comfort me once again". Know that Rich and I will always be here for you. We love you and care for you all.

“ Bob and kids,
Our thoughts and prayers are with you at this time. No preparation readies us, fully, for such a happening within our families. But you have such a strong faith that the burden of the loss of mom and wife is certainly tempered by that faith and the support of family and friends.

God Bless You!
