“ I still remember the day I met Tiffany She was 11 years old,(and we won't tell my age)!! She came and sat beside me to watch me crochet so she could learn. We connected at that moment. I remember the 13 year old who came to help me with housework, during one of my many days of poor health. She didn't want to move anything to sweep the floor, because "then it would be work"!! When she sang her voice was so clear, partly because it was difficult for her so she worked at it more than others. Her singing was a beautiful reward for the time and effort she put into it. Playing dominoes with friends a few weeks back, I saw myself in the store buying those dominoes.....shopping with Kathy, Tiffany and Samantha.

I am so sorry for your pain and your loss. I am so glad that I have the joy of knowing you all and being some small part of Tiffany's life here. Above all I am so glad to know that Tiffany is with her Beloved Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

My heart aches for you.

My thought remain with you.

My prayers continue to flow for you.

“ Dear Mike, Cathy, Trista and Samantha: I would like to share a poem I wrote yesterday. What we go through below, He has gone through who is above. In temptations, trials, sorrow; our lord has walked and shown God's love. May your petals bruised and broken, lying flat upon the field: Rise anew, love's fruit becoming; through which others may be healed. From Russ Morrison

“ So very sorry to hear of your loss of such a beautiful young person. She is with our Savior and we will all be together again as HE has promised. May God give you strength and peace in the coming times. We lost our son at age 11. Keep all the great memories you have in your heart and share them with each other, it helps to ease the pain. Some days will be as though it happened yesterday, other days will be ok, but lean on family and friends and trust in our Savior. We never know the reason, and are not meant to know, but we know our Savior Loves us all, we are all his children and Tiffany is now with HIM in all her glory, and at peace. Deepest sympathies' to all. Jay and Jackie Perius and families.
