“ Jill, So sorry to hear about your mother. I have not seen her for many years now, but she was always so pleasant to talk to when she came in The Uptown to eat. She was very nice lady. We would go by her place once in awhile to put up hay over in that area. Will be praying for you . God bless all of you. Helen and Art Allee

“ Vera was my Grandmother. She was an amazing woman. She was resilient, energetic, and dedicated. I will always admire her strength. The greatest lesson I will take from her life is to never give up. I am so sad that she is gone, but thankful for the many years I was in her life. I love her and miss her with all my heart.

Most Sincerely & Lovingly,

Stefan Biggs

“ Vera and Irv were neighbors to my parents, Ray and Evelyn Goepferd, for many years out on the Leaf River and they would visit back and forth and play cards. My favorite story that my parents shared with us is that they took a trip to somewhere in North Dakota with Vera and Irv. Irv drove and they stopped in Fargo to fill with gas. Then took off on I-94 heading west and drove 10 miles and pulled over on the shoulder and they got out to switch drivers. Dad asked why they were stopping. Irv or Vera said that in 55- Alive class they said you should switch drivers every 100 miles and since it was only 90 miles to where they stopped for gas they had to go another 10 miles before switching drivers. They continued to switch every 100 miles no matter where that 100 mile mark left them. At least they were listening at that class.
Good neighbors to my parents who are both gone now.
