“ Condolences to the family. I was just thinking about Vern at work this morning. He did a lot to instill both knowledge, and a great work ethic in us as his students. It was an honor to have him as an instructor at Wadena Tech. May he rest in peace. Dan Meyer.

“ John and all my almost 2nd family,

Thank you for the notice. I am in a little shock as I'm sure you all are in different ways.

I was very moved yesterday evening during prayer - for those who lost someone close to them. So, I guess I was praying for all of you and didn't know it.

You are each in my prayers these next few days. I know you are swamped but give me a call if you have a minute so I can get your phone number. 320.266.6691

*My love,
Kurt*

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

I consider myself lucky to have known Vern. I also give credit to Vern on many of my successes and my ability to get a job after school.

Vern was more than just a teacher, or friends dad. He was an intelligent, fun (and sarcastic) guy we always liked to talk to... especially tech stuff.

You could always count on him for a good laugh when we would come over to your house.

“ So sorry to hear of your loss of a husband, father, and above all a very good instructor and leader. I had the good fortune to have Vern as an instructor the first year he taught at the Wadena AVTI. I could not have asked for a better foundation for electronics. Vern hired me to teach Cable Television, I've always been thankful for that opportunity. As the department head for electronics Vern pushed us instructors to train all the students, no matter what the students learning abilities. I remember Vern telling us a failure was not only the fault of the student but also that of the instructor. I still live by this rule. Our thoughts and prayers go out to the whole family.

“ What a sad day for all of us! Vern has been part of our family for so many years. Words cannot express how we will all miss him. He was an encyclopedia of information on so many subjects, especially those having to do with nature, politics, and just plain common sense. We will miss all of this as well as the light and humor he brought into all of our lives. Our love and prayers are with you, Mary, Jeff, Michaela, John and Andrea.

“ What I learned from you:

It's OK to show that you love your wife in front of the kids.

If you have an opinion - express it.

Are you part of the problem or part of the solution>

The scenic shortcuts are usually better!

Why run on the treadmill when you could split wood or mow the lawn.

Family matters.

There is no problem that can't be fixed.

You CAN do anything!

“ I too learned a lot from Vern - I learned that it is true - we can build a house (X2) from a pile of sticks and bricks. I learned what love is really about - I learned to care about everyone and every where in the world -to act on my beliefs and to accomplish something every day. Unfortunately I did not learn his marvelous patience - and forbearance.

Vern loved every day that he lived and let everyone know it. He wanted to leave the world a better place than when he had come - and I believe he has - he lives on in many lives and as a tissue donor will continue to leave an impact.
