

Vida Hume

July 6, 1932 - February 4, 2022

A private memorial service for Vida Hume, age 89, a resident of Providence Villa in Sebeka, MN, will be held at a later date. Vida, age 89, passed away on February 4, 2022, at the Villa in Sebeka.

Vida Mae Wagar was born to Harold and Ethel (Wittstruck) Wagar in Winner, SD on July 6, 1932. She attended Dakota Wesleyan University in Mitchell South Dakota and obtained a degree in Social Work at the University of Denver in Colorado. She obtained a degree in Dietetic Technology at Normandale Community College in Minnesota and worked as a Dietetic social worker in Minneapolis.

In 1957 she married the Rev Ronald Hume in Denver Colorado and then lived for a while in Kansas where her three children, David, Margaret and Linda were born. Later the family moved to Minnesota where Ron served in churches throughout the state.

She was active in all her husband's churches, sang in choirs, participated in the United Methodist Women and was on the board of the Emma Norton Residence. When she and Ron retired, they lived in a cabin on Palmer Lake and continued charity work with the Nomads. Vida enjoyed sewing and reading.

Preceding Vida in death were her husband, Ron (2015) and parents Harold and Ethel.

Left with memories of Vida are her son, David (Jean) Hume; daughters Margaret Siemsen and Linda (Richard Barton) Hume; four grandchildren and three great-grandchildren; and brother, Wesley Wagar.

At the family's request, no flowers or memorials are preferred.
