“ Dear Fah Family,
I have lost track of all you, I have many memories of the Stroot /Fah families getting together..In fact, we got our first pony from your family, which we loved. Virginia borrowed a prom dress to me so I could go to the prom..many drive-in theater movies together..I share your loss of a wonderful friend.

“ I remember when Mom lost one of my little sisters - Gosh I must have been 5 or 6, they took Mom out in an ambulance - Virginia was there to take care of us. I didn't really understand it then, because I was so scared - but Virginia prayed the whole time for Mom and encouraged us to pray also. We have not seen much of each other in the past 20 years, but I can remember several conversations with her about faith and how much she trusted her Lord's guidance. I am sure there is much rejoicing in heaven and much laughter. It is only here that there is sadness. She was an amazing lady.
